

REFERENCE FORM

The Templeton Honors College at Eastern University

The Templeton Honors College (THC) at Eastern University is designed to challenge and prepare academically gifted undergraduate students for leadership and service as individuals of influence in culture, society and in their professions by providing a holistic program focused on the life of the mind, character formation and skill development.

The curriculum involves intensive reading, writing and discussion in both the Great Books and major current books and ideas. Throughout their education, Templeton Honors students will receive a thorough grounding in the humanities and sciences through a learning experience comprised of specific THC seminars, a broad selection of other electives, and diverse cultural experiences.

Please provide below your view of the applicant's intellectual and academic capacities and curiosity, and his/her potential for success in the highly competitive environment of the Templeton Honors College. Comment, if possible, on the extent of the applicant's reading and writing, and the applicant's aptitude for interactive discussion and debate. Additionally, in light of the THC's expressed purpose, describe clearly the applicant's potential for flourishing in this context.
